Gary Bates Schreiner received his B.A. in Political Science from The American University in 1974 and his J.D. from Brooklyn Law School in 1977. He qualified for his Accredited Estate Planner designation from the National Association of Estate Planning Councils in 1995.

Before entering private practice in 1988, Gary was a Trust Officer with Chase Manhattan Bank's Trust Department, U. S. Trust Company of New York's Personal Asset Management Division, and The Bank of New York's Personal Trust Division. Gary's responsibilities at Chase were in Estate Administration, and at US Trust he administered hundreds of personal Trusts for which the Trust Company had been appointed Trustee. In 1985 he joined the Bank of New York providing Estate Planning for high net worth clients out of their Garden City branch. Gary left Trust Banking in 1988 to build a private practice focusing exclusively on Estate and Business Succession Planning, Estate and Trust Settlement and Administration.

Gary is a member of the New York State Bar Association—Trust and Estates Section, American Bar Association—Section of Real Property, Probate and Trust; New York County Lawyers Association; Nassau County Bar Association; and the Nassau County Tax and Estate Planning Council. Gary is a former Director of the Emy and Emil Herzfeld Foundation, Inc., in NYC, and former two term President of the St. Boniface Parish Conference (in Sea Cliff) of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, in Sea Cliff, New York.

Our firm is a founding Member of the International Network of Boutique Law Firms, now active throughout the United States and around the world.

Gary is a frequent lecturer to consumers and his fellow professionals in the estate planning arena.

Gary and his wife Gail of thirty six years retreat to their home in Saranac Lake, in New York's Adirondacks, whenever they can, for hiking, canoeing, skiing and porch sitting.
